PORTS OF ROMSDALSFJORD

Molde

Situated by the Romsdalsfjord, near the ocean, Molde is renowned for its beautiful surroundings and wonderful views. The most famous viewpoint is Varden, which allows you to enjoy the extraordinary vista of the Molde panorama's 222 mountain peaks.

Town of roses and jazz

If you ask a Norwegian about Molde, they will probably tell you that it's called the Town of Roses. The nickname was in use as early as 1913 and refers to the many lush rose gardens.

Molde hosts the worlds oldest annual jazz festival. Every year, thousands of jazz enthusiasts turn every corner of the city into a week-long music celebration during the Molde International Jazz Festival.

Atlantic Road

Don't miss out on a trip to the Atlantic Road, equally impressive both in sunny and stormy weather. The Atlantic Road zigzag cross bridges and islands to the point where land and ocean meets the fjord.

On the way to the Atlantic Road make a stop at Bergtatt and explore the mystical marble caves. The caves are a result of mining operations and have been active since 1938. A boat ride into the caves offers visitors a unique and peaceful experience.

The Romsdal Museum

The Romsdal Museum (est. 1912) displays buildings and interiors from the whole region. A charming group of children can perform traditional folk dances, wearing their national costumes. Krona Visitor Center showcases a collection of ancient artifacts, temporary exhibitions, and a "bunad" workshop where you can see the traditional garments being made.

THE ATLANTIC ROAD

The Atlantic Road zigzags across bridges and islands, to the point where land and ocean meets the fjord. This is one of the Norwegian Scenic Routes and has been named the Norwegian Structure of the Century as well as the world's most beautiful road trip. Amazing on a sunny day – dramatic during stormy weather. At Eldhusøya, a suspended walkway offers visitors the opportunity of a short stroll to enjoy the dramatic landscape. The Atlantic road is open all year round, and both summer- and winter tours can be arranged.

The round trip from Molde to the Atlantic Road and back offers several great attractions, including cheese tasting at Derinngarden farm, Bergtatt marble caves and Bud fishing village.

Tour description

The excursion starts with a visit to the viewpoint Varden, before a scenic one-hour bus ride from Molde to the Atlantic road. Optional stop at Bergtatt marble caves or Derinngarden farm on the way. Photo stop on the Atlantic Road and a stroll on the suspended walkway. A coffee stop in the charming fishing village Bud, with a visit to Bud Coastal Museum and the Ergan Coastal Fort, can be arranged on the way back. Alternatively, there can be a coffee stop at Hustadvika Havhotell.
